NARRATIVE:

Judy Vasquez is a documented gang member and has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 18. Her convictions include assault with a deadly weapon with great bodily injury, multiple vehicle theft convictions, possession and sale of cocaine, prostitution, possession of narcotic controlled substances, soliciting lewd acts, disorderly conduct, failure to appear, violation of parole and failing to report. She has served multiple state prison terms the longest a 2 year term for possession of controlled substances. Vasquez was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on May 1, 2012. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. She subsequently failed to report to her probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in July 2014 after she absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Vasquez qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because her current commitment offense for possession of controlled substances is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. Her prior criminal history, gang member status, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make her a most wanted. If you know her whereabouts please contact...
